

“Jeff’s Place helped us to heal and move forward. Children are nurtured by the knowledge they are not alone in loss. Parents learn to cope.”

“The light at the end of the tunnel. Children receive therapy without even realizing it.”

“The staff provides compassion and understanding, and the groups provide a safe space with others who understand when the world around you doesn’t.”

“We are truly grateful for all the incredible folks at Jeff’s Place. We are happy to say we are graduates...Hope Grows Here.”

The Boston-based law firm GOULSTON & STORRS is nationally known for its professional excellence, long-term relationships with clients, and the firm’s commitment to community service. Leading legal industry sources including Best Lawyers, Chambers USA, the Vault and Am Law Pro Bono 100 have repeatedly recognized the expertise of the firm and its attorneys. G&S has generously provided invaluable counsel and legal assistance to Jeff’s Place on a pro bono basis since our inception 10 years ago. The firm’s longstanding role has helped make it possible for Jeff’s Place to serve so many grieving children and families. It is with gratitude and affection that Jeff’s Place honors the special contributions of Goulston & Storrs.

ROBERTA RUBIN came to Jeff’s Place shortly after her beloved husband Eric died from a brain tumor. Her two children, Evan and Lucy, were 13 and 18. Roberta and Evan spent almost four years at Jeff’s Place coping with their loss and reinventing themselves as a family by connecting with other families going through the grief process. They are members of a special community of people, Jeff’s Place families, who are bonded by a shared experience and phenomenally supportive of one another. We honor Roberta, who represents our many graduates who have found the strength and courage to carry on through the unique, caring support of Jeff’s Place.
